

Quebec City company lands Japanese airport contract

THE GAZETTE
MARCH 23, 2010

MONTREAL - Tokyo's Haneda Airport has chosen Quebec City's Obzerv Technologies Inc. cameras to perform coastal surveillance around its new runway. The deal will see several of the company's ARGC-750 cameras deployed to monitor strategic long-range airport locations. Obzerv specializes in designing and manufacturing long-range night-vision surveillance equipment.